The screenshot shows the homepage of the American Airlines website. At the top, there is a banner titled "Travel updates" with a link to "Information about U.S. entry requirements, travel restrictions and changing your trip. »". Below the banner, the American Airlines logo is displayed next to a globe icon. To the right of the logo are links for "PLAN TRAVEL", "TRAVEL INFORMATION", "AADVANTAGE®", and the "oneworld" alliance logo. The main headline on the page is "Fly nonstop to Los Angeles", with a subtext "Book your trip from Japan" and a "Book now" button. Below the headline is a large image of the Griffith Observatory in Los Angeles. At the bottom of the page, there is a navigation bar with four tabs: "Find flights", "My trips", "Check-in", and "Flight status". The "Find flights" tab is currently selected, showing options for "Round trip" (which is selected) and "One way". There is also a checkbox for "Redeem Miles". A note at the bottom states "(* Required)".
